Gallery 44 and the Centre for Emerging Artists & Designers are excited to announce that the recipients of this opportunity are Ana Luisa Bernandez, Auset Luxor and Malik Dieleman. This exclusive membership opportunity will provide access to Gallery 44 production facilities, equipment rentals and programming for sixteen months, starting June 1, 2020 to support the graduates' upcoming exhibitions, continued creative production and professional opportunities.

Gallery 44 supports a thriving community of artists and supporters committed to contemporary photography. As an artist-run centre, Gallery 44's activities are driven by the commitment and energy of its membership and artist-led Board of Directors and programming committees. Members play a crucial role in supporting our activities and advocating for our mission. Gallery 44's membership program provides technical and conceptual support to artists in every stage of their careers. The Gallery works closely with members to foster inclusive practices and to help promote many unique approaches to photography.
